

Dear Friends,

Centro Presente and Chelsea Collaborative are asking for your support. More than 30 Latino immigrant workers, who were employed by local cleaning company franchises contracted to clean and maintain several Legal Seafood and The Cheesecake Factory restaurants in the Greater Boston area, did not receive payment for regular and overtime hours.

Join us in collective action and help the workers to raise their voices and demand justice.

Dear Mr. Berkowitz,

We are writing to you on behalf of more than 30 Latino immigrant workers, who between 2007 and 2008 were employed by a local Coverall franchise that was contracted to clean and maintain several Legal Seafood restaurants in Greater Boston. These workers have not been paid for regular and overtime hours they earned with Coverall. Their cases are pending with the Massachusetts Attorney General's office.

Please take a stand for the fair treatment of workers by: 1) assisting us to ensure that these individuals receive the wages legally owed to them; and 2) not hiring sub-contractors that violate labor rights.

We have no doubt that as President and Chief Executive Officer of Legal Seafoods you will help recover the wages of the men and women that helped your business grow. Please uphold your company's core values, which strongly emphasize "doing the right thing for your guests and making a positive difference in the communities in which your restaurants reside," by paying the workers the wages owed to them by the company Legal Seafood hired to clean its restaurants.

Sincerely,

Organization: _____
